DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 10-14, 59, and 68-72 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Litchholt et al. (5,895,379).

Litchholt discloses all aspects of the claimed invention but remains silent as to the third insult strikethrough and rewet values. Litchholt discloses an absorbent article 10 in the form of a diaper, as shown in figure 1, comprising an impermeable backsheet 14, a permeable topsheet 12, an absorbent core 34, and a foam fluid handling layer 36. The absorbent article 10 is made by a method of providing the backsheet 14, topsheet 12, core 34, and fluid handling layer 36, and assembling the components. The foam fluid handling layer 36 is disposed between the permeable topsheet 12 and the absorbent core 34, as shown in figure 2, and described in column 10, lines 36-37. Litchholt discloses the need for a low rewet value in column 22, lines 18-22, and incorporates by reference the topsheet construction of U.S. Patent No. 4,324,246 to Mullane et al. Mullane discloses topsheet materials that reduce rewet and increase strikethrough, and shows in Table IV first insult strikethrough and rewet values that are within the claimed ranges.

Art Unit: 3761

It would therefore have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to construct the article of Litchholt such that it has a third insult strikethrough of less than about 45 seconds and a third insult rewet of less than about 35 grams, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 30-58 are allowed.

Claims 2-9, 15-29, 60-67, and 73-87 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
